

Project Update: March 2009

March 9, 2009

The board member of Armanah Suksamran Credit Union Limited Thailand (CULT) visited our RSG-Mangrove Terrace, a living laboratory for local scientists and community members to learn the benefits of bio-diverse mangrove habitats.

March 11, 2009

The group of 8 students from Chumporn Business Administration School, Chumporn province visited our RSG-Mangrove Terrace. They learnt about our Mangrove project compare to their province and will spread the biodiversity knowledge to their community.

March 12, 2009

The Foundation for AIDS Rights Prevention Center group of 20 visited our Mangrove Terrace at KLC. We share the Mangrove RSG project information to all stakeholders. We believe that the more we disseminate the benefit of the Mangrove, the more nature resources we can keep for our next generation.

March 17, 2009

The Cultural Parliament of Suksamran, group of 30, visited RSG Mangrove Terrace at KCLC. They are one of the stakeholders that focus on cultural environmental conservation, we shared and spread information of the great benefit of the Mangrove habitat and how important of the Biodiversity.

March 23, 2009

The Foundation for AIDS Rights brought the youth aging between 12-15 years old, group of 70 visited our RSG Mangrove Terrace. They will disseminate our project to their friends.

March 24, 2009

IUCN, the International Union for Conservation of Nature and the Mangrove For The Future Project brought the experts and the administrators from various organizations that work in the coastal resource areas from Sri Lanka, group of 17, visited KCLC and the Mangrove Terrace with wonderful experience.

March 31, 2009

Youth Camp group of 20 students had a useful activities during their summer holiday. They have joined our RSG Mangrove project through learning and replanting the Mangrove together.

Please see more details in <http://mangrover1.multiply.com/>