

Project Update: September 2009

This is last month of the RSG project. Report writing and communication of the results with other level is going on.

15th August (Independence Day of India): plantation programme organized along Adan River. About 200 people, including NREGA labour government officers, press reporters gathered for plantation.

18th August: a peaceful demonstration made at agriculture department regarding delay in the payment of the NREGA.

24th August: Yavatmal - meeting arranged with the students of B.Ed. College. This was essential interaction meeting for the future expansion of the project.

25th August: Dhanaj - meeting arranged with the health officials of the primary health centre regarding conservation of the wetland resources.

29th August: Pune - meeting arranged with the notable ecologist Prof. Madhav Gadgil regarding Lower Penganga Dam Construction (LPDC).

30th August: Ralegan Siddhi - meeting arranged with the notable social activist Anna Hajare regarding LPDC.

Left: Plantation programme at Adan River. Right: Visit to Agriculture department by River Conservation Union for peaceful demonstration.