

Project Update: May 2008

In 11-14. 05. 2008 was organized the first expedition to Caspian islands for investigation birds and their habitats.

We worked in shoal and coast of the Chechen islands. We cannot collected enough data about breeding birds, but collected more information about birds habitats and limiting factors. We made some good photo and video. The next expedition planned in 10-15 June.