Acknowledgement

Many people and organizations have provided various types of supports and help to complete this project. I would like to acknowledge their contributions without which this project would not have been successfully completed.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Jagadish Chandra Pokharel, former vice-chairman of National Planning Commission Nepal, Ram Pandit Ph.D student at Auburn University USA and Bipin Kumar Acharya lecturer of Patan Multiple Campus Lalitpur, Nepal for their moral support, constant suggestion, and guidance since the beginning of the project development.

Similarly, I would also like to acknowledge to Rabi Lal Chaudhary, officer of DLSO Achham and Khadga Bahadur Shaha technical officer of DLSO Achham for harmonizing the working environment in the field.

I would also like to extend especial thanks to my field assistant, Sujan Khanal for his tireless support and dedication towards the project. I am also very thankful to Mr. Amar shahi JTA of Sanphebagar Achham for helping me for the workshop with local people and classroom teaching. This project of mine would have never been completed, without the support of cattle rearing people living in Pocket VDCs. Therefore, I would like to express my cordial thanks for their active participation and memorable hospitality during my stay in the field. I am grateful to the teachers and headmasters of Shodasha Higher Secondary School Mangalsen Achham, where oratory contest entitled of importance of Achhami Cattle had been launched. Similarly, I am grateful to the students and local people who actively participated in the project activities. Mr. Bishnuhari Wagle, team leader of Crocodile Conservation Awareness Project (CCAP) on deserves my due appreciation for valuable interactions and collaboration in some of the project activities.

I wish to thank Journalist Omkar Acharya, who published a research article of Achhami Cattle in NAWA VYASBANI weekly Newspaper. Similarly, I wish to thank Krishna Shahi editor of Ramaroshan Weekly, a local newspaper of Achham for publishing the article in Ramaroshan weekly. Likewise I am also grateful to the editorial committee of BHANU SHREE (souvenir of the Adikabi Bhanubhakta Campus Damauli, Tanahun) for publishing the article of Achhami Cattle entitled of Achhami cattle and its Conservation. I am also grateful to the senior animal scientist of Animal Breeding Division for conducting national level workshop with the senior scholars of NARC and NASRI and broadcasting the News from NTV in agricultural programme.

Finally, but not the least; I am very much grateful and thankful to Josh Cole Director of The Rufford Small Grants Foundation, UK for providing the financial support to materialize the concept of the project.
