

Project Update: August 2014

We have just begun the first Clean Up campaigns along different beaches of La Paloma, together with local municipal authorities, OCC volunteers and neighbours, in the context of Sanctuary project activities. Since the middle of July 2014 we have started the campaign to collect the plastics and trash along the beach. Objectives are increased awareness and involving people to protect the ocean.

