

Project Update: March 2010

Under the programme, "Basic veterinary training", three youths each from Saldang, Phoksundo and Viker Village Development Committees have been selected to participate in a 35-day Rural Animal Health Worker training programme. Among the trainees are Mr. Dhawa Samduk Gurung; Chairman of Jewarang Snow Leopard Conservation Committee, Viker participated in the training from January, 17 to February 20, 2010. This training was held in Kathmandu and organized by Veterinary Clinic and Service Centre. Mr. Dhawa has started working in the village as an animal health worker.