

Project Update: January 2017

Project activity started with the training of the survey team on the survey protocol and questionnaire survey techniques. A total of 12 heads were arranged for questionnaire survey. Questionnaire survey and educational conservation awareness campaign has been completed for Sama county. There are 400 households in Sama County and questionnaire survey has been conducted for 50% of the households. Educational conservation awareness programme has been conducted after the questionnaire survey in each sub county. Total of 315 households have attended the educational conservational awareness programme. Currently the survey team is conducting questionnaire survey in Eusu County.

Village in project site

Educational conservation awareness programme towards local farmers

Conducting questionnaire survey with head of the household