

Project Update: June 2016

Due to heavy rains and floods in South Banat that affected our selected localities we were late with our first spring field trip. High water levels and mud prevented access.

Construction for frog catching

Pelophylax sp.

Skin rinsing for algological analysis