

Project Update: January 2011

We got a number of groups to go turtle watching with us during the past season. These included a large number of school children. We also had a quiz at the Charlestown Secondary School. Furthermore there was the sea turtle camp and we aired turtle group activities on the media, print, radio, TV and on the internet.

