

Project Update: August 2017

A total of 92 camera traps were set across three range jurisdictions of Royal Manas National Park; Umling, Gomphu and Manas Range. Gomphu range was added considering the height of altitude it covers to determine gaur distribution.

Data on habitat use and field based threats were also collected during the course camera trap field survey.

