

Project Update: April 2017

The mural in Creek Chino School was finished. During this month we started with the workshop: "biology of sharks". For this activity we used powerpoint presentation and stuffed animals to show children physical characteristics, fins and differences between male and female sharks. Also children created a paper mural in their classroom using their own drawings as an educational tool to represent their resource in fun way.

