

Project Update: April 2006

This month the students were given information about garbage recycling and composting. At the first meeting, students gave information about kind of garbage that can be recycled, recycling methods, final product of recycling process and the benefit in conducting recycling. Team use flipchart in explain the subject. At the end of meeting, students were asked to collect organic garbage for practicing composting process on the next meeting. At the second meeting in this month, students were organized to manage composting process.

Left: "Firstly, we made a box," said Nanda, the facilitator. Right: Student's activities in producing the composting box

After the box was finished, then the students started fill in with the garbage

This month, the teachers and headmaster was visiting one school that had been practicing green schools, Sukamantri primary school. In this school the participants was conducting dialogue with the teacher from Sukamantri primary school, many were asked during the dialogue, since how they started, how to maintained, who is maintained, until what benefit could got by the school. The participants also visiting the garden that manages by students in Sukamantri primary school.

Left: Participant's enthusiasts during visiting the Sukamantri primary schools garden. Right: "Please don't hesitate to ask about anything," said Nanda to the participants, facilitating the dialogue