

Project Update: February 2018

I'm pleased to inform you that I took part in the International Sea Turtle Symposium in Japan this year, I'm happy to share with you the poster I presented there. This poster presents the preliminary results generated by interviews with fishermen which are part of my project funded by Rufford.

