

Project Update: October 2001

We had a really successful environmental activity day for the children in the village last week. The school teacher from the next village was very enthusiastic and we are planning a similar day to be held in the school now that term has begun.