

Project Update: December 2018

From August to December 2018, the team continued with the community sensitisation and education activities on local radio and information centres.

The capacities of 30 selected members were built on tree nursery establishment and subsequently 1000 Azadirachta indica seedlings has been established as a model nursery for planting degraded areas in early rains.

Picture taken during nursery establishment thus filling of Polly pots

Model nursery of Azadirachta indica