

Project Update: October 2018

Marking spaces for digging holes in sand

Planting a treated offshoot into a sand hole

Left: Planting a treated offshoot into a sand hole. Right: Applying growth hormones onto a plant .

Left: Digging more sand holes for the plants. Right: Planting a treated plant into sand.

Left: Putting a plant into sand. Right: Applying growth hormones to a plant before planting them in sand.

Plants put in sand.

Treated plants covered in sand.