

Project Update: January 2019

Acrylic Painting of Fishing Cat

S.N	Activities	Accomplished	Remarks
1.	Permission granted from Department of Forest(DOF)	✓	It took few months due to technical reasons.
2.	Preliminary & Questionnaire Survey	✓	Done in September 2018.
3.	Camera trapping Survey in Kapilvastu	✓	From October – December 2018 and still in Jagdishpur reservoir (2 pieces).
4	Camera trapping in Shuklaphanta National Park(SuNp)	✓	*Camera trapping in Shuklaphanta National Park is yet to start due to technical reasons in getting permission.
5	Conservation Awareness	(Partial)	Poster and t-shirt in press
6	Camera trapping Workshop	✓	*remaining

We have been sharing the updates of our project via official Facebook pages and Instagram.

Please Visit the link for detail of our research and conservation:

- 1) <https://www.facebook.com/wildlifenepal/>
- 2) <https://www.instagram.com/fishingcat8/?hl=en>

Left: Group Discussion about the status and habitat of fishing cat among the investigators and the local. Right: Deploying camera trap with field assistant around the Banganga River. © Prashant Ghimire (Co-investigator).

Left: Sketch depicting Fishing cat with its behavior in its habitat by Ravi Bikram Shah. Right: Banganga River (One of the major potential habitat for fishing cat and wetland dependent species in Kapilvastu).

Official logo of our project designed by Milan Budha.