

Project Update: May 2010

PanNature have been working with local schools and forest protection department of Ha Giang province to develop and deliver various environmental education and awareness activities with schools around Khau Ca protected area. The following link below is a photo report highlighting recent activities that were implemented in 2009 and 2010 and published on PanNature's website:

<http://www.nature.org.vn/en/news/media-gallery/khau-ca-tsnm-awareness/>

Many other educational materials related to the Tonkin Snub-nosed Monkey conservation such as teacher guidebook, children activity-guide, community poster and fact-sheet packages are on-going development and hope we can soon release in 2010.

