

Project Update: June 2020

On June 12th and 15th 2020, I was with colleagues from the Institute on Lake Markovačko to determine the zero-point/current state of the fish stock. We also took a part of the black bullhead specimens to the Centre for Fisheries and Applied Hydrobiology (CEFAH) of the University of Belgrade – Faculty of Agriculture in order to continue with the experimental rearing.

