

Project Update: January 2022

Our team completed key informant interview and visual documentation pollination of bats in Chiuri tree, two of the main objectives of the project. We are working in editing the videos while planning for vegetation survey and plantation programme.

