

Project Update: June 2022

We have successfully completed the plantation programme in collaboration with the local Community Forest Groups of the project area and was able to plant around 1000 chiuri seedlings. The timing was important since we will be having monsoon season soon and the seedlings will have an opportunity to grow properly. Please find attached herewith some photographs from our field.

