

Project Update: February 2007

1. GUARUMA staff and locals already start to built infrastructure and display improvements for the nature classroom in Las Mangas community. Cangrejal. Hope in 2 weeks classroom will be ready to start to be used by the local's students in the area as an interactive nature classroom.
2. The Cangrejal environmental editing newspaper staff (local teenagers 15-19 years old) is already formed by 6 members. They start to thinks first ideas about the "Vistazo ambiental" newspaper monthly release in the watershed. Arranging for logistic, equipment and office editing is been setting up in Las Mangas community.
3. GUARUMA is already training 7 local teenagers for naturalist tour guide (Adventure rangers).

