

We have completed field surveys conducted from late January to early February. From these surveys, we obtained initial findings on the two populations of Gekko russelltraini and Gekko takouensis during the dry season.

Image Descriptions

Photograph 48407-1_1: Two team members collecting morphometric data from Gekko russelltraini during a survey (Photograph by Nguyen Hoang Van)

Photograph 48407-1_2: Team members collecting morphometric data from Gekko takouensis during a survey (Photograph by a local ranger)

Photograph 48407-1_3: I with Gekko takouensis in the field (Photograph by Nguyen Hoang Van)

Photograph 48407-1_4: Field observation of habitat disturbance in Gekko russelltraini habitat, Dong Nai Province. (Photograph by Nguyen Hoang Van)

Photograph 48407-1_5: Field observation of agricultural land use (dragon fruit cultivation) adjacent to the habitat of Gekko takouensis, Lam Dong Province (Photograph by Nguyen Thi Ngan)

Photograph 48407-1_6: Field interview with a local resident (Photograph by a local ranger)